

GLOBAL MISSIONARY SERVICE

COMING TO OUR CHURCH

Colleen Carter

Colleen received missionary appointment to Ghana in 2007. She is the coordinator of Pass the Word printing office, an instructor at African Center for Theological Studies, a Sunday school teacher, a children's ministry regional coordinator, and secretary/treasurer of the West Africa sub-region. She lives in the city of Tamale in the northern region, a highly Islamic area where she also grows churches and coordinates the Africa Aflame literature publications. When Colleen returns to the field, she will continue to diligently work for the Lord through her training ministry of teaching and preparing materials to be taught.

GHANA