Global Missionary Service

Lynne Jewett

Lynne first went to Guatemala in 1989 as an AImer. She became a fully appointed missionary in 1996 and has been working in Bible schools and children's ministries ever since. She is the Children's Ministries Coordinator for the Central American & Caribbean Region, traveling to many of the countries in the region promoting Children's Ministries, teaching seminars and holding children's crusades. Her goal is to establish Sunday schools in all of the churches throughout the region. Since 1999, Lynne has been the administrator of the Bible school in Guatemala, with nearly 400 students each year and nine schools in operation throughout the country.
