Steven and Jean

Tir

Slovakia and Serbia

Steven Tir, a Slovak born in Croatia, immigrated at age twelve with his family to Canada. After graduating from Apostolic Bible Institute, he worked and studied business in Ontario before serving in Slovakia under the Associates In Missions program from 1992 to 2000. Steven met Jean, a graduate of Urshan College, while they were both AIM workers in Kosice, Slovakia. The Tirs received their appointment as missionaries to Slovakia in September 2000. After establishing opportunities for ministry with Slovak churches in Serbia, the Tirs were appointed in 2007 to also represent the nation of Serbia. As the superintendent of the United Pentecostal Church International works in Slovakia and Serbia, Steven oversees established churches, outreach points and Bible schools. Jean is actively involved in women's ministry in both nations. In January 2014, the Tirs were pleased to launch a new evangelistic ministry: an internet radio station (Radio Radost.com) in Serbia, which will reach out to the Serbian and Slovak-speaking people around the world, becoming truly a global force.
