

Sawyer

Amy

Amy M. Sawyer began her missionary journey in 1989 on the Associates In Missions program in El Salvador and later transferred to Honduras. In 1997 she transferred to Belize where her primary work has been directing the Bible school which she founded. Amy received her appointment as a United Pentecostal Church missionary in 2002. In Belize she serves as the Bible school director, National Secretary/ Treasurer, Ladies Ministries director and legal representative. She is also heavily involved in children's and youth ministries. During this past term the Bible school added new extensions and had eighteen graduates. Ladies Ministries was organized on a national level and ladies conferences have taken place. She has also coordinated the purchase of new properties and the construction of churches. Upon return to the field she will focus on growing the work in the areas of Ladies Ministries, Children's Ministries, new church openings, new ministers and the Bible school program.

