David & Yonda

Schwarz

Regional Director

Central America/Caribbean

& South America

David and Yonda Schwarz received career missionary appointment in 1988 to the Central American country of Costa Rica. The Schwarz family pioneered a church in the central valley of Costa Rica which they pastored for twelve years. During their tenure, the work grew in every aspect. In 2012, they were appointed to serve as Regional Directors of the Central America/Caribbean Region. In January 2019, they were also given the responsibility of the South America Region. They now supervise Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean Islands and all of South America.
