Mitch and Jutta

Sayers

Germany

The Sayers are intermediate missionaries to Germany. They were married while in northern Germany in 1994, as Brother Sayers worked as a mechanical engineer for Ford and Sister Jutta finished her studies in Braunschweig. Both received the Holy Ghost in Germany in 1995. They moved to Michigan, were baptized in Jesus' name in 1996 and were active in the choir, as team leaders, as an elder and other capacities in Ypsilanti. In 2007, just after Bro. Sayers earned an MBA from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, God opened a door for them to return to Germany, this time to Stuttgart. Two years later they moved to Munich where they now live and pastor the Pentecostals of Munich, a new church plant. Brother Sayers is the General Secretary for the German Speaking Nations, the Vice President and Administrator for the Apostolic Ministry Training Center.
