

Missionaries to Venezuela

Coming To
Our Church:

Lonnie & Gail Burton

Lonnie is the son of James and Martha Burton, former missionaries to Venezuela and regional director for South America, and was raised on the field since the age of nine. He returned home for Bible school where he met and married Gail. They worked with Brother Benjamin Urshan for several years until they were appointed missionaries to Venezuela in 1976. The Burtons have worked on the eastern side of the country pioneering many churches, and after fifteen years they moved to the city of Valera on the western side where Lonnie became the director of the Bible school. Besides opening several new churches in the area, Lonnie has also served as the director of home missions in Venezuela. Both Lonnie and Gail are teachers at the Bible school.

