The Corbin family received missionary appointment to Bangladesh in 2002. Since then the work in Bangladesh has grown from seven churches to 115 churches and has over 15,500 members. In 2012 the very first fulltime Bible school was founded in Bangladesh and has been training ministers from both Bangladesh and India. They have been traveling to India to help with crusades, seminars and revivals. The Corbins' vision is to help establish more effective Bible schools, training institutes, churches and preaching points in India and Bangladesh.
