

Foreign Missionaries At
Our Church On

Leonard & Ping-Lan Richardson

TAIWAN

Leonard and Ping-Lan Richardson were appointed AIMers in 1992 and served in Taiwan until they received career missionary appointment in 1994. They have started three churches and trained or helped train thirteen preachers, of which two are now pastors, one is an assistant pastor, and three have gone to different cities and are teaching Bible studies or having regular services. Brother Richardson is the president of the Taiwan Pentecostal Bible College, which has been in operation for at least eight years. The Richardsons are working on reorganizing TPBC, translating materials from Global Association of Theological Studies, teaching at TPBC and preaching special services in Taiwan and other countries as well.

