Jonathan and Maria Strickland

Ashley and Siena

Jonathan and Maria were appointed missionaries in 1999 after serving as AIMers in Greece for three years. As AIMers, they founded the youth ministries for the national churches, sponsoring conferences and training. They pastored the international Crossroads Church in Athens and helped establish and administrate a Christian school on the Crossroads campus. Jonathan served on the regional youth commission as youth secretary, helping to create and administrate a more cohesive effort among the youth ministries of Europe. They now feel God calling them a different direction and, upon completion of deputation, will begin their missionary ministry in the country of Ireland.
