Stephan & Debra

Summers

Cyprus

Stephan was raised in Louisiana and Debra was raised in a military home, mainly in Europe. Following their marriage in 1992, they moved to Savannah, Georgia, working as the youth leader and then together as the young married couples leaders. After the birth of their daughters they moved to Tennessee working with, and eventually assisting, Bro. Scott Armstrong.

In 2000 they began to feel a calling on their lives. They applied for AIM and in 2002, landed in Athens, Greece. While there, they taught Bible studies and doctrine classes, worked in the Christian school and in administration and helped with building remodeling and maintenance.

While on a trip to Cyprus their burden for that country began to grow. In 2008-2010 they were AIMers to Cyprus. They were appointed as missionaries in 2011 and arrived in January, 2015. Stephan and Debra have been diligently working to learn both the language and culture of this unique country. Their love for Cyprus, its people and unique culture runs deep. As pioneering missionaries to the "Island of Barnabas," they are committed to reaching the people, tearing down strongholds and seeing the people of these ancient cities come to know Jesus. It is their desire to see works established for His namesake all across this country.
