Biography

The Frizzells were appointed to Southeast Asia in September 1990. Their appointment was changed to the Asia region in 1998. Robert and Gayle Frizzell pioneered the United Pentecostal Church in Vietnam, Laos, the Golden Triangle and Cambodia. They converted, established and trained the ministry in these nations. Additionally they started a Thai church, a Burmese and an international church in the city of Bangkok, Thailand. The international English speaking church has ten mid-week locations, with three Sunday services in different locations in the city of Bangkok and in the suburbs.

Bro. Frizzell assists the national church in Myanmar with ministerial and leadership training, revivals and teaching in the Burmese Bible school. He stated, "When I begin something new in a place I convert, disciple and train local ministry to assume the new local, the new provincial or new national church. They are to take upon themselves the ownership and the responsibility of the church in their own nation. When I go into an established national work I reaffirm the doctrine in detail, encourage and strengthen the ministry, motivate them to greater evangelism and discipleship of their people, and teach what is requested by the national leadership."
