Biography

Scott and Linda are missionaries appointed to Mexico and Cuba. They have ministered for twenty-two years in Mexico pastoring in Mexico City and founding churches in Tuxtla, Gutierrez, Chiapas and Puebla. Linda served as the national Sunday school director and then as the ladies' ministries director for several years. In 2013, they began working in Cuba and have been involved in establishing a training program for ministers there as well as traveling on the island and helping open new works. They now also have an itinerant ministry in the Central America/Caribbean Region and South American Region, working alongside national leadership and the supervising missionaries in several islands and countries, providing leadership and ministerial training.
