Biography

Prior to missions service, Braden was a practicing Certified Public Accountant and worked for the United States Government. Carrie was a tenured associate university professor of art history and sculpture. After responding to the call to full-time missions the Reeves served under AIM for one year in both Greece and Cyprus. While still on the field, they were appointed as Associate Missionaries in early 2020, working as furlough replacements to the nation of Cyprus and studying Greek full time. Liliana and Isaac made friends and loved life in Cyprus. The Reeves were fully appointed as Intermediate Missionaries to Greece in May 2021 and are eager to return to the field of their calling.
