Biography

Amy has spent the past thirty years actively involved in missions. She began her missionary journey in 1989 on the Associates In Missions program in El Salvador and later transferred to Honduras. In 1997 she transferred to Belize where her primary work has been directing the Bible school which she founded. In 2018 she spent three months in the country of Vanuatu and three months in the country of Kenya teaching in the local Bible schools. In 2019 she returned to Vanuatu. In Vanuatu she continues to teach in the Bible school and serves on the PK Ministry leadership team. Amy received her appointment as a United Pentecostal Church missionary in 2002.
