Biography

Joe Cooney is a first generation Apostolic whose family is from Ireland. He was filled with the Holy Spirit in 1995. As an AIMer from 2002 to 2010, he spent over three years in Ireland and three and a half years in London, England, evangelizing and assisting different ministries. Fanny Cooney is a fourth generation Apostolic from France. She is an experienced conference interpreter and regularly translates ministry curriculum. Receiving full missionary appointment at the 2010 General Conference in Houston, the Cooneys served as pastoral furlough replacements in Vienna, Austria, from 2011 to 2012. They returned to Northern Ireland in 2014, taking the pastorate of one church and planting a new one in the city of Belfast. In the last four years they have seen over one hundred souls filled with the Holy Ghost in Northern Ireland. In all their years in ministry and evangelizing throughout the United Kingdom, Ireland, Europe and the United States, thousands have been filled with the Holy Ghost, healed and set free.
