Biography

Since their 1987 missionary appointment, the O'Donnells have filled various roles such as pastor, Bible school administrator, teachers and trainers of workers. All of these have been conducted in the fields of their appointment; Hong Kong, China, and Macau. In addition, in this last term, Stephen was appointed as the Area Coordinator of East Asia. This involved travel to the various nations assisting the Asia Regional Director in the nations of South Korea, Japan, Taiwan, China, Hong Kong, Macau and Mongolia. Area Coordinator duties include working with the missionaries and national pastors of these nations. Upon their return to the field they will continue to use Hong Kong and Macau as their bases in order to travel to the various countries as needed.
