Biography

Richard and Andrea had been AIMers since 1993 when they received missionary appointment in 2012. Richard was born and raised on the mission fields of Papua New Guinea, New Zealand and Fiji. His early ministry years were spent in Fiji, where he pastored a church, helped establish the national headquarters and taught in the Bible school for ten years. They returned to Australia to continue AIM work there for another six years.

In 2007 they returned to the land of Richard's birth, Papua New Guinea, where he has worked in the headquarters office, conducted leadership training, and performed many functions to assist the running of the church.
