Biography

Jeremy Favors has been in the ministry since 2006, mostly in Hurst, Texas. He served in various capacities over the years including student pastor, college & career director, outreach director, and assistant to the pastor. He graduated from the University of Texas with his BBA.

Khrista Favors is a missionary kid and was raised on the mission field helping her parents plant churches in Bolivia, South America, and Barcelona, Spain. She attended Jackson College of Ministry in Jackson, Mississippi.

During a fifteen month Associates In Missions appointment to Luxembourg, the Favors started a new mission work in Luxembourg City, Luxembourg, that is the only apostolic church in the nation. They received missionary appointment in 2015 and are anxious to return to continue working with God in this endeavor. It is the goal of the Favors to introduce the 557,736 people of Luxembourg to the life-changing power of the gospel of Jesus Christ.
