Biography

Radovan and Tanya Hajduk served on Associates In Missions for four years in various countries and received their appointment to Croatia and Slovenia in 2009. Radovan was born in Serbia (Yugoslavia) and survived an abusive childhood. His personal testimony and ministry to the hurting have reached thousands of people. Tanya is the daughter of retired missionaries, Samuel and Pat Balca, and was born and raised on the foreign field. The Hajduk's have been involved in pioneering works in countries without resident missionaries. Upon their return to the field for their second term they will be in Croatia's capital city, Zagreb, where they will continue establishing churches throughout Croatia and Slovenia.
