Biography

The Harrods arrived in Barcelona, Spain, in 2004 as AIMers. During their AIM assignment, they pastored in Barcelona as well as planted another work in a nearby city. The Harrods received full missionary appointment in 2006 and upon returning to the field, they continued serving as pastor in Barcelona in a church that has grown to over 450 members, as well as planted two more daughter churches.

Brother Harrod has served as the coordinator of the Bible school in Barcelona , supervisor over the churches in the Northern Region of Spain, and as national treasurer of the UPC of Spain. Sister Harrod has served as national Sunday school director and regional ladies director.

When returning to the field after deputation, they will continue to pastor in Barcelona and will work to establish new works in the Northern Region of Spain. They will also endeavor to spearhead the opening of the country of Andorra.
