Biography

Joseph Landaw is a Missionary Kid who was raised in the islands of the Caribbean. He knows the culture and loves the island people. After Bible school, Joseph and Cassandra Landaw assisted in a church plant in Fishers, Indiana, for four years in various roles, including that of youth pastor.

In 2008 they applied for and were granted an AIM assignment to Trinidad and Tobago assisting Joseph's parents, missionaries Gary and Kristi Landaw. While there they pastored a church in the southern part of the country and coordinated and taught in the Bible school program.

In September 2010, they were appointed intermediate missionaries to Trinidad and Tobago. Their main goals are to establish more churches in the southern part of the country as well as improve and increase the enrollment of the Bible school. They are anxious to return to the islands to begin the next phase of their missions calling.
