Biography

Jacob and Mandy Palma are appointed missionaries to Uruguay, South America. After graduating from Christian Life College in 2007, the Palmas went to work at their home base church in Merced, California before joining the Associate In Missions program in 2009. As a bilingual family, God has opened many doors to minister in both English and Spanish throughout the United States as well as South America.

Upon returning to Uruguay, the Palma family will be located in the city of San José De Mayo, where they will open the Southwest region of the country by planting the first United Pentecostal Church to reach a combined population of nearly one million people.

Through pastoring and working in the bible college, their focus will be on training workers to plant churches in unreached areas.
