Biography

Jonathan and Maria were appointed missionaries in 1999 after serving as AIMers in Greece for three years. As AIMers, they founded the youth ministries for the national churches, sponsoring conferences and training. They pastor the international Crossroads Church in Athens and have helped establish and administrate a Christian school on the Crossroads campus.

Jonathan served on the regional youth commission as youth secretary, helping to create and administrate a more cohesive effort among the youth ministries of Europe. Upon their return to Greece, they hope to continue to lead the Crossroads Church and the national churches into greater revival.
