

AARON AND TIFFANY Anderson BRAZIL

GLOBAL MISSIONS SERVICE

Aaron and Tiffany Anderson served on AIM to Brazil in 2013. After that first six-month trip, they felt that God had called them to return to Brazil. In July 2014, they both became licensed ministers with the UPCI and returned to Brazil in December of that same year. In September 2016, they received missionary appointment. It is their burden to reach the thriving metropolis of São Paulo with the gospel, planting churches and aiding the locals in training and evangelism. They have been able to start three churches this last term in São Paulo, one of which is now beginning it's own daughter-work. Their goal is to start a church in each of the ninety-nine neighborhoods of São Paulo as well as to aid in the cause of sending Brazilian missionaries to Portuguese-speaking nations around the world.
